FINANCING

1. Since shipping regulations vary from state to state, any out-of-state bidder should be familiar with his or her locality. Shipping costs and insurance are the responsibility of the purchaser.
2. State and Local Sales and Use Tax: state, local, and District of Columbia, and use tax laws, may apply to sales of tangible personal property at auction. These laws require Hands Across The Valley to collect from purchasers and to pay over to the relevant tax authorities, an appropriate amount of sales or use tax, applicable on the date of sale, unless exemption from sales or use tax may include, for example, and without limitation: (1) a sale of property that will be resold by the purchaser; and (2) a sale of property that will be used by the purchaser outside the jurisdiction of the state, district, or locality that imposes sales or use tax. The destination of items transported to the purchaser will generally determine the jurisdiction of use and accordingly, which laws apply. In order to qualify for exemption (1) above, a valid seller's permit must be submitted before the auction or a copy of the permit must be presented at the auction.
3. Full payment, in United States dollars, must be made at the conclusion of the auction on Saturday evening, September 29, 2018, prior to the removal of the lot. If the buyer requests to have the lot shipped, shipping arrangements, regulations, costs, and insurance are the responsibility of the purchaser. Since shipping regulations vary from state to state, out-of-state bidders should be familiar with the laws of the destination locality.

SHIPPING POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

1. Any wine items not taken away the night of the auction by the winning bidder or their representative will be shipped to the winning bidder via FedEx ("Two Day Air Service"). No other local pickup or delivery services are offered or guaranteed to be available.
2. Alcoholic beverages can only be shipped legally to a select list of state jurisdictions. A winning bidder wishing to have his or her wines transported into a disallowed state will have to make private arrangements to do so. Typically, one desiring to accomplish such shipping will ship to another party in a nearby, legal jurisdiction and make arrangements to receive the wines from that party. Alternatively, arrangements could be made to have the items shipped from the Licensed party providing the item to a Licensed entity (i.e., a Retailer location) in some states, but the availability of such solutions is limited and complex.
3. All wines shipped must be shipped to an address where an adult (at least 21 years of age) will be available during typical business hours to sign for the delivery. Ideally, delivery to commercial business address should be used. All packages will be clearly identified as containing Alcoholic Beverages, and require the signed release of an unintoxicated adult to assure compliance with all state and local laws.
4. All items will be shipped insured. The winning bidder must declare the value they wish to insure the items for, and will be charged $0.50 per hundred dollars of insured value over and above the standard shipping charges.
